And The Citadel Intimate Life

Sex in the Citadel should be celebrated—not least for freeing voices silenced by a mixture of taboo and political repression. It provides crucial oxygen for discussions that will need more airing in the long, conflicted years ahead.” —The Independent (London) “Sex and the Citadel is a gentle lamp that sheds light on the darkest corners. . . . This is a brave, constructive and critical book that unites rather than divides, and attempts to understand rather than to compare and contrast.”
