Ravens Feast Hakons Saga Book 2

The story flows nicely and gives the reader a chance to experience life in a time and place that is full of conflict; not only for the throne but also the clash between Odin and the White Christ. Old ways die hard and that is certainly the case in this intriguing story; one that will continue in book 2, Raven's Feast. 4.3 stars

All too often, a sequel is a let-down, but not with Raven's Feast. It's better than the first book in the series, God's Hammer - which was pretty fantastic in its own right. This book builds on a very strong central character in Hakon, who journeys through a lot of ups and downs as he takes his place as king.
